

The Sir Thomas Browne Library

A Selection Of Books About Adult Safeguarding

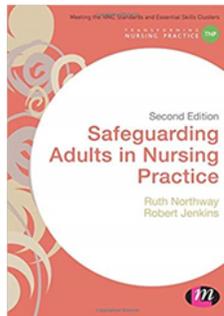

To borrow a book from this collection contact
The Sir Thomas Browne Library
Email: library@nnuh.nhs.uk
Tel: 01603 286893 (internal ext. 2893)
Or visit www.elms.nhs.uk

Safeguarding adults and the law

By Michael Mandelstam WA 32.5

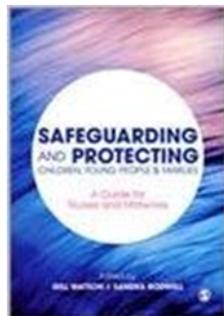

The legal framework to safeguard adults is complex. This reference book is clearly written and provides many useful pointers for practitioners and students.

Safeguarding adults in nursing practice

By Ruth Northway and Robert Jenkins WA 300 N

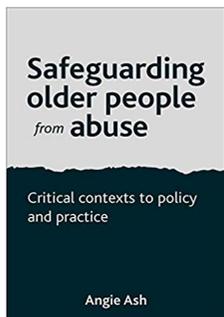

All nurses are likely to encounter people at risk of abuse and neglect. This book seeks to raise awareness of vulnerability, abuse and neglect whilst providing the knowledge and skills required to safeguard those within your care.

Safeguarding and protecting children, young people & families: a guide for nurses and midwives

Edited by Gail Watson and Sandra Rodwell WA 320

The full spectrum of safeguarding work is covered, including confidentiality, boundaries, communication and attachment. Case examples and reflective exercises demonstrate relevant application to healthcare practice.

Safeguarding older people from abuse: critical contexts to policy and practice

By Angie Ash WA 300

This critical and challenging book makes a strong case for the development of ethically-driven, research-informed policy and practice to safeguard older people from abuse.

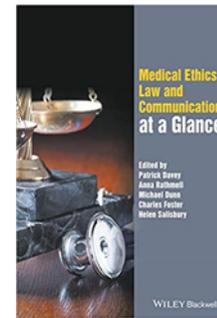

Safeguarding Adults

By Alison Brammer

WA 300

Designed to equip practitioners with the relevant knowledge for practice, this book lays out current legislation and guidance and applies it to different areas of adult safeguarding.

Medical Law Ethics and Communication at a Glance

Edited by Patrick Davey et al

W33

Presents a succinct overview of the key areas of the medical curriculum and offers an accessible introduction to the fundamentals of good medical practice

Recording skills in safeguarding adults: best practice and evidential requirements

By Jacki Pritchard and Simon Leslie

WA 300

This book covers crucial recording skills and evidential requirements for writing effective statements and reports for court plus how to present evidence clearly and persuasively.

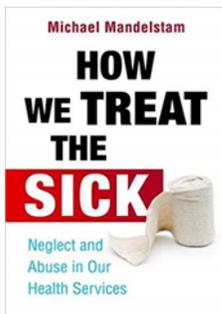

Safeguarding Adults Under the Care Act 2014

Edited by Adi Cooper et al

WA 300

Chapters cover core areas of practice according to Care Act and adult safeguarding principles, identify the fundamental skills and knowledge practitioners working in this area should be able to utilise

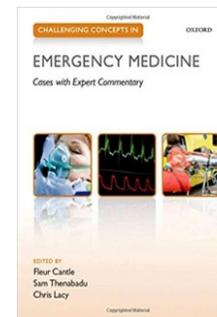

How we treat the sick: neglect and abuse in our health services

By Michael Mandelstam

W 84

No official statistics are kept for the number of hospital patients who are subjected to neglect and abuse. Setting out a wealth of evidence, Michael Mandelstam points to the main obstacles to a solution - and to how they can be removed and change be accomplished.

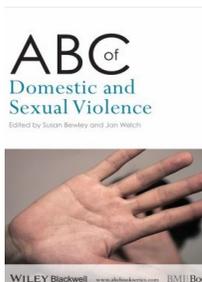

Challenging concepts in emergency medicine: cases with expert commentary

By Sam Thenabadu and Fleur Cantle

WB 105

A case-based guide to challenging areas in emergency medicine, complex cases are examined from a multidisciplinary perspective with detailed consideration given to management options and the evidence base behind these decisions.

ABC of domestic and sexual violence

Edited by Susan Bewley

WA 308

A practical guide which includes information about how to identify abuse, guidance on subsequent acute and longer-term medical and psychosocial interventions. There is also guidance on legal perspectives including documentation and sources of help and advice.

Diagnosis of non-accidental injury : illustrated clinical cases

By Vincent Palusci

WA 320

An invaluable tool to aid prompt and appropriate diagnosis, presenting various types of findings and challenging the reader with both common and not-so-common manifestations that may result from or be confused with, abuse and neglect.